The Telephone Preference Service (TPS) is a free service where you can register to opt-out of receiving unsolicited sales and marketing calls. There is a clever scam doing the rounds recently where the caller claims to be from the TPS Marketing Department. They ask a series of questions leading to offering "discounted" call-blocking devices. If you order one with your credit/ debit card the only thing you'll receive is a big hole in your bank account. As always, just put the phone down. The TPS never make this type of call. Thanks to Maureen for sending this through.

LADIES CHRISTMAS LUNCH

Thank you from the ladies who lunch.....

Ladies coffee morning Wreltonians, past and present, descended upon Sinnington on December 14th for our Christmas lunch. As usual it was good to see friends old (in terms of how long they've been a friend, nothing to do with birthdays you understand) and new to catch up on the news over a delicious lunch.

This year there were around thirty of us so plenty of chatter going on almost til darkness fell! It's no mean feat to organise the lunch; sorting menus to suit everyone - there are a few odd dietary requirements among us we've been told - not to mention making sure everyone gets there and back home in one piece.

So, many thanks to Maureen Roberts who got it all completely right and ensured a jolly time was had by all!

Happy New Year everyone and don't forget the first coffee morning of 2016 is on January 13th.
