“A Walk Around Dhaulagiri”

Slide-Illustrated Talk by Peter Hartrey

Peter Hartrey has kindly offered to give another slide-illustrated talks about one of his many treks in the Himalayas at the Village Hall on Friday 24 March, at 7.15 (for a 7.30 start).

“This is an illustrated talk about a trek around Dhaulagiri, a mountain in Central Nepal. At 26,795 ft (8,167 metres) it is the seventh highest in the world.

It is possible to make a complete circuit of the mountain. Walking is moderate on the southern and eastern sides, but is much more demanding on the western and northern sides, which involves negotiating large glaciers and crossing two high passes. The talk describes the approach from the south and then the route through the wild uninhabited country to the west and north of Dhaulagiri, before finally descending over 6,000 ft into the valley on the eastern side.”

There will be light refreshments and a raffle. The event is free but there will be a plate for donations towards Village Hall funds. If you are intending to come, please phone Jan Firth on 474469, with numbers in your party for seating and catering purposes.

BARN DANCE WITH PIE AND PEA SUPPER

There will be a Spring Barn Dance at the Village Hall on Friday 31 March, starting at 7.30. Richard and Anne Abrahall will once again be “on stage” and, as last year, you are invited to bring your own drinks. A pie and pea supper will be provided during the interval and also a raffle.

Tickets are £7 each (£5 for under 14’s) available from Jan Firth on 474469.

THE LIBRARY THEATRE TOURING COMPANY

present
2 "TALKING HEADS"

by Alan Bennett

WRELTON VILLAGE HALL

7.30PM FRIDAY 12TH MAY 2017

The Library Theatre Touring Company from Leeds will be performing two dramatic monologues from Alan Bennett's acclaimed BBC-series 'Talking Heads.'

Deborah Kelly will play the lead role in both plays.

A Lady of Letters..... Miss Ruddock's civil liberties are dear to her, and writing letters is how she likes to assert those rights. One of these missives pushes her to the brink, with unexpected but liberating consequences.

Bed Among the Lentils..... Susan, an alcoholic, nervous vicar's wife who has to travel into Leeds to go to the off-licence because of her debts with the local shop keeper, distracts herself from her ambitious and, as she sees him, vainly insensitive husband and his doting parishioners by conducting an affair with a nearby grocer, Ramesh, discovering something about herself and God in the process

Each play lasts around 35 minutes with a 20 minute interlude.

Library Theatre Touring Company was formed in 1996, supported by Leeds Libraries, with the original aim of taking accessible, professional theatre to outlying local areas. They now tour small theatres/village halls nationally from The Wynd Theatre Melrose Scotland to The Quay Sudbury Suffolk to The Ammanford Theatre Wales - and now in Wrelton!

Tickets are available from Village Hall Committee members or by calling Tony Miller on 476931 or 458494 (voicemail).

Tickets cost £7 including a glass of wine.
