Village Halls Week 2020

On Saturday 25th January Wreton Village Hall Committee welcomed villagers and visitors to an open day as part of National Village Halls week. Thank you to everyone who made the effort to come along and enjoy the displays and discussions with the various groups who use the Village Hall. It was an interesting couple of hours. The VH Committee would like to thank, in particular, the representatives from the First Responders, Coffee and Conversation, Toddlers Group, Woodcarvers and Peter Anderson for the 'Old Wreton' slideshow. Also, thank you to the volunteers who made the tasty soup and everyone who gave up their time to contribute on the day.

Wreton Village Show - 9th August 2020 - 2-4pm

Plans are well underway towards Wreton's First Village Show and we hope that many of you will take part and make this event successful. The classes are now listed on the Wreton Village website along with the rules and an entry form. For those of you who receive a hard copy of the Wreton Rambler you will be receiving the full programme and an entry form with your June Wreton Rambler. If you have any queries then please contact Helen Young on 01751 473841 or helenyoung52@hotmail.com

To my wonderful friends and neighbours, who gave up their Friday morning to make mine memorable.
A truly exciting beginning to the week-end!
My love and thanks to you all, especially Sue who planned it so well.

A NIGHT AT THE PANTO!

with Dominic Goodwin

WRELTON VILLAGE HALL

TUESDAY 17TH MARCH, 7.30PM

Incorporating

Last Panto in Little Grimley by David Tristram centres on the fading amateur dramatic group, The Grimley Players, who, due to dwindling audiences are forced into staging a risqué Pantomine. But a set of calamitous happenings through the rehearsal period make the opening night an hilarious night to remember....!

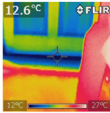

AND

A Pantomine is one of a series of stories written by the actor Peter Jones, known for his appearances in many comedy movies of the 60's and 70's as well as TV's The Rag Trade and Radio's Just a Minute. Jones created J Kingston Platt - a theatre impresario - for BBC Radio 4 in the 1980's. This tall tale was first broadcast in 1985. Dominic Goodwin reads the story (with full permission of Peter Jones's family) with his known sense of comic timing and fun.

Tickets £8 advance or £10 on the door

THERMAL IMAGING CAMERA

LOTTERY FUNDED

Kirkbymoorside Environment Group (KMEG) have a thermal imaging camera available free of charge (donations accepted) to help residents identify and reduce heat loss through windows, doors, walls or roofs. KMEG volunteers are not trained advisors but have helped over 160 businesses and residents reduce heat loss - so saving money on their energy bills and reducing the carbon footprint of the area. The camera can be used to take pictures inside or outside your home with your permission, and these can be emailed or printed out for you.

For further information and to book the camera email Helen Gundry at
